

View 1a & 1B

A: A westward view from the parish edge across undulating agricultural fields and natural hedgerows. The scene is purely rural, highlighting the open, undeveloped countryside

B: Looking west towards Maplescombe, this view shows expansive farmland with distant farm buildings and dwellings nestled in the valley.

View 2

A high-angle panoramic view looking south from the elevated edge of Farningham Woods. The village of Farningham is nestled in the valley mid-ground, framed by expansive green agricultural fields and hedgerows.

View 3

View looking north across open agricultural fields toward the southern edge of Farningham. The village buildings and mature trees in the mid-ground, while the densely wooded slopes of Farningham Woods rise along the horizon in the background.

View 4

View from Sparepenny Lane on the Darent Valley Path, looking northeast toward Farignham. The spire of St Peter & St Paul's Church is visible among the village trees, framed by green gap of agricultural fields that separates Farningham from Eynsford.

